About Me

Hello and welcome to my website! My name is Yahia Djemmada, and I'm a lecturer at the National Higher School of Mathematics (NHSM) in Algiers, Algeria.

I've always been passionate about mathematics and computer sciences, and have pursued this interest through my education and career. I obtained my PhD degree in mathematics at University Of Science And Technology Houari Boumediene (USTHB).

In addition to my work as a lecturer, I'm also an active researcher in the fields of combinatorics and discrete mathematics, and have published some papers on this topic.

On this website, you'll find the materials of my lectures, my publications,...; I hope you find it informative and helpful! If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to reach out to me through my contacts.

Publications

In chronological order:

1. F.Bar, J.Doe: Effects of having a placeholder of a name
2. S.Holmes, J.Watson: Consequences of living with a sociopath in London
